The Kappa Beta Pi Sorority gave a dinner last night at the New Ebbitt Hotel to the new members of the sorority. This dinner was one of the functions in a series given by the sorority to these new members. Miss Lydia Hendrickson, having given a tea in their honor at the New Willard Hotel, and Miss Ruth Halpenny and Miss Anna Spelch, Miss S. Evelyn White, Miss Julia Banks, Miss Elizabeth Harris and Miss S. Christine Quick. After the dinner, which was held in the red parlor, the initiation of these new members was held. The members of the sorority present were Miss Ruth Halpenny, Miss Ethel Lawrence, Miss Gertrude Leonard, Mrs. Sarah T. Andrew, Miss Lucile Compton, Mrs. William H. Delaney and Miss Lydia Hendrickson.

noon at the Congressional Club. There are thirty-two tables, and the guests are from congressional and other official circles as well as resident society. The clubrooms are decorated with many spring flowers, and a Japanese tea cloth, with doilles, awaits the winner at each table.

A few additional guests have been asked for the tea which follows.

Mrs. Howard S. Reeside, Mrs. William Stephens, Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Henry Danforth will preside at the tea table.

Miss Mary Virginia Kibler, and Dr. Kibler, and The home of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James L. Kibler was the scene of a charmingly arranged wedding last night when Dr. Kibler performed the marriage ceremony of his daughter. Miss Mary Virginia Kibler, and Dr. Ernest Dunbar Clark of Philadelphia. Mr. Glenn C. Gorrell arranged the program of music, which included two vocal selections by Miss Elizabeth Leckle—Cadman's "At Dawning" and "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms"—the strains of the latter being played softly all during the ceremony.

Young Charms"—the strains of the latter being played softly all during the ceremony.

The drawing room was decorated with palms and spring flowers.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin and chantilly lace, made short and worn with a veil held in place with orange blossoms, sent from Florida. Her bouquet was of white iris with a shower of illies of the valley. Miss Alice Gertrude Kibler served as maid of honor for her sister, and wore a modish gown of pink taffeta with pink tulle drapery and carried Killarney roses. Master Carlton Power was ringbearer and Dr. G. Augustus Geiger, a former classmate of the bridegroom at Harvard and Columbia, was best man. Mr. Howard McLarin and Mr. Harry Hough were ushers.

Only a small party of relatives and intimate friends were invited. When Dr. and Mrs. Clark left Washington for their wedding journey the bride wore a gown of navy blue satinstriped taffeta and a hat to correspond. They will go to California and various points in the west before returning to their home at Lansdowne, Pa.

The marriage of Miss Katharine Ainslee and Mr. Kyle Polk Edwards of Columbus, Ohio, took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Kate F. Ainslee, on L street, Rev. C. Earnest Smith officiating.
Bride's roses and palms formed the decoration for the drawing room, the tall palms banking the bay windows where the ceremony was performed, and an orchestra played softly during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Butler Wright have returned to Washington from the White Sulphur Springs and will make their home for the rest of the season at the residence of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Southerland, at 1921 N street.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wright took place there on May 27, and was a quiet home affair.

Mrs. A. J. Gronna entertained at tea a delegation of North Dakota women, en route home from the Federation of Women's Clubs convention in New York city. She was assisted by Mrs. George M. Young and the Misses Gronna. The guests of honor were: Mrs. H. A. King, Mrs. R. Clendening, Mrs. E. F. Chandler, Mrs. C. W. Kelley, Mrs. C. F. Quimby, Mrs. F. F. Bergendahl and Mrs. R. A. Sprague.

Mr. George W. Wickersham of New York, Attorney General during the Taft administration, arrived here yesterday and is staying at the Willard.

Mr. William D. Thorn of 1412 35th street announces the marriage of his daughter Catharine Estelle and Mr. Wester John von Wald of Wisconsin, at West Palm Beach, Florida, Thursday morning, June 5.

After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. von Wald will be at home on Lucerne avenue, Lake Worth, Fla.

Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan left Washington last night, after spending some time here at the Hotel Lafayette. Mrs. Ansay at Japan and Mrs. Poat Wheelers and Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Ray will be earlied to the season at the even-morning to the ceremony was given away by her mother, Mrs. Ainslee, and was attended by Mrs. Sales accover ivory satin, the long court train falling from the shoulders of brussels lace over ivory satin, the long court train falling from the shoulders over as half wreath of trule, held in place by a half wreath of trule, held in place by a half wreath of trule, held in place by a half wreath of train, and a shower bouquet of brusers and lilies of the valley completed the toilet. left Washington at noon today for Princeton, where tomorrow night Mr. Wheeler will attend his class reunion. Mrs. Wheeler has been the guest of Senator and Mrs. Ollie James for ten days past, and Mr. Wheeler joined her a few days ago. Entertaining in some form in honor of Mrs. Wheeler has been incessant since her arrival here, and she and Mr. Wheeler will return to Washington for a short visit before sailing for Japan the middle of July, and will again be guests of Senator and Mrs. James.

Mrs. Lansing, Mrs. Post Wheeler and Mrs. Eberle shared honors at a luncheon at Dower House yesterday, with Mrs. Thomas B. Hutchinson as hostess. Among other guests were Mrs. Claude Swanson, Mrs. C. McChord, Miss Flora Wilson, Mrs. Duncan Ellsworth and Miss Emily Brown.

Mrs. Hutchinson will start on a motor trip to Bretton Woods and several other New England resorts about June 20.

Miss Dana, on her way back, will visit the homes of her pioneer ancestors, built at Belpre, Ohio, 116 years ago, and which are still in possession of the family and occupied by their decendants.

Miss Ames will visit in Ohio, where she formerly lived for a short time, and Miss Cramer will go on to Shawn.

Wis., for an extended visit with relatives.

New England resorts about June 20.

One of the simplest weddings of this month will be that at noon Thursday, June 15, of Miss Callie Hoke Smith and Mr. J. Lyman Grant Pratt of New Jersey, whose engagement was announced yesterday.

Society will be denied the pleasure of an imposing official wedding such as might surround the event, on account of the invalidism of Mrs. Hoke Smith, and only a very small party will witness the ceremony.

Senator Smith will give his daughter away, and it is possible that Mrs. Alston R. Simpson will stand with her sister during the ceremony. Miss Smith will wear her going-away gown, and all formality will be abandoned for the occasion.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Gov. Cobb of Georgia, and it is a great denial that the officials of the democratic administration as well as the large circle of friends of Miss Smith and her family are not to dignify the event and make it a truly senatorial weddings.

Mrs. Thomas W. Stubblefield enter-

Mrs. Thomas W. Stubblefield entertained at a bridge, followed by a tea, at her home on 16th street yesterday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. William Padgett of Tennessee.

Ten small tables were placed on the roomy veranda for the players. Additional guests were asked for the tea later in the afternoon, and Mrs. Stubblefield was assisted by her husband's isters, Mrs. John Points and Mrs. Polk-inhorn, who sat at the tea table, and Miss Katherine Holden, Miss Celeste Holden, Miss Helen Leighton and Miss Phyllis Hughes.

The dining room was particularly novel and attractive, there being a Japanese canopy suspended over the tea table from which soft lights fell. Rambler roses and other gay blossoms of the season were used in profusion in the various rooms of the house.

The prizes were a mahogany tray for each table.

The marriage of Miss Katharine T. Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Frank, and Mr. James M. Lanierick Frank gan will take place at 9 a.m. June 27 at Holy Trinity Church.

Miss Bertha L. Dana, treasurer of the southeast branch of the Congres-sional Union and also member Conti-nental Chapter D. A. R., accompanied by Miss Mary C. Ames and Miss Mary A. Cramer, is in Chicago attending the first convention of the woman's politi-cal party. cal party.
